3. Definition

- (1) The term “our subsidiaries and affiliated companies” shall mean the companies of the PIXTA Group as listed under the Group Company.
- (2) The term “Personal Information” shall mean information about a living individual which can identify the specific individual by name, date of birth or other description contained in such information (including such information as will allow easy reference to other information and will thereby enable the identification of the specific individual), and which contains an individual identification code, in accordance with Act on the Protection of Personal Information.

4. User Information to be Collected

The PIXTA Group will collect and obtain as the User Information the following information including the Personal Information of the User in the course of his or her use of the Services:

- (1) Information provided by the User in the course of his or her use of the Services

The PIXTA Group will collect and obtain the User Information such as e-mail address, password, name, date of birth, postal address, telephone number, gender, and information for settlement such as credit card information and bank account information. The PIXTA Group may require a certain part of the User such as the Contributor Members or the Photographers of the Services, to provide their profile information, including, without limitation, their display names and real names, in order to make them known to the public, and such information will be accessible by the User of the Services. Also, The PIXTA Group may, for secure operation of the Services, require such User to submit their identification upon the membership registration. Due to the particular nature of the Services, the identification will be required in order to prevent impersonation etc. of the User who provide the contents or services available in the Services, and will be automatically deleted after a certain period of time designated by the PIXTA Group. The PIXTA Group may collect from the User who participate in the campaigns or questionnaires etc. their names, addresses, telephone numbers, e-mail addresses or other information after designating the purposes of use of the information.

Some of the Services provide functions that enable the User to use the Services using the external SNS account other than those of PIXTA Group at the User's option. In such cases, PIXTA Group may, based on the User's consent, collect the User Information from any third party such as the external SNS other than PIXTA Group.

- (2) Information related to the User's devices accessing to the Services and information collected through Cookies, etc.

The PIXTA Group will collect and obtain the information collected through the use of Cookies or web-beacon, IP address, browser information, access logs such as browsing record information, device information, or any other information. We do not regard such information as included in the Personal Information because it alone cannot identify the specific individual; provided, however, that it shall be regarded as the Personal Information if it is combined and used together with any of the Personal Information.

5. Purpose of Use

The PIXTA Group will use the User Information for the following purposes (hereinafter referred to as the "Purposes").

- (1) For provision and maintenance of the Services;

The PIXTA Group will use the User Information for provision and maintenance of the Services, including, but not limited to, the following cases where the PIXTA Group:

- i. responds to the User's inquiries or the system troubles etc. in the Services, by investigating the usage status etc. of the Services by the User related thereto;
- ii. verifies or authenticates the User's identity in order to provide the membership registration or login functions;

- iii. bills the fees, pays the remuneration, and for the purpose of measuring the advertisement effectiveness and so forth, confirms completion of the transactions;
- iv. notifies of the updates of the Terms of Use etc., the changes of functions, and other important notices related to the Services; and
- v. conducts campaigns or questionnaires etc. related to the Services, including, but not limited to, any new services, which may include campaigns or questionnaires etc. related to any other companies' products or services etc.

(2) For security and countermeasures against fraud;

The PIXTA Group will use the User Information for security and countermeasures against fraud in order for the User to use the Services in safe, for example, when detecting fraudulent acts such as violation of the Terms of Use etc. of the Services, illegal acts, or unauthorized access etc. in advance, and when confirming the facts if any fraud occurs or is suspected to occur.

(3) For credit card issuers' detecting and preventing unauthorized use

The User Information will be used by issuers of credit cards or other equivalent cards to detect and prevent unauthorized use of such cards. In that case, the PIXTA Group may provide the User's name, address, e-mail address, telephone number, information regarding the internet usage environment, and other information necessary for payment to the issuers of the User's card and payment service providers. Also, if the card issuers are located in a foreign country, the User Information may be transferred to the card issuers in the foreign country. Since the PIXTA Group cannot identify the card issuers or the country in which the card issuers are located from the information that PIXTA Group has collected from the User, PIXTA Group is unable to obtain and provide certain information regarding the name of the foreign country where the card issuers are located, information regarding the country's system for protection of the Personal Information, or the card issuers' measures for protection of the Personal Information. The website of the Personal Information Protection Commission in Japan provides information on systems for protection of the Personal Information in certain countries.

(4) For provision of appropriate contents to the User;

The PIXTA Group will use the User Information for provision of appropriate contents to the User, for example, for displaying highly relevant contents as recommended contents from the User's search, purchase or reservation history, etc.

(5) For advertisement, promotion, and marketing;

The PIXTA Group will use the User Information, based on the User's consent, or in a manner and to the extent as permitted under applicable laws and regulations, in order to send, display or otherwise provide (by telephone, e-mails or other means) advertisements etc. on the products or services of the PIXTA Group or any other companies that will be considered useful to the User. The PIXTA Group may deliver advertisements and e-mail magazines according to the User's interests through analyzing the acquired browsing history, purchase history, and other information.

(6) For service improvement and research development;

The PIXTA Group will use the User Information for the purpose of improvement of the Services and research development or the PIXTA Group's business operation, for example, for improving the websites of the Services through analyzing the acquired browsing history, purchase history, and other information. The PIXTA Group may conduct service improvement or research development through aggregating or analyzing the attributes of the User's Personal Information, and creating the statistical material processed to make the individuals unrecognizable or unidentifiable.

(7) For handling of the Personal Information in accordance with the terms or rules of, or related to, the Services;

The PIXTA Group may, pursuant to the provisions of the Terms of Use etc. of the Services, disclose and use the User Information for communication between the User necessary for the use of the Services. If the User violates any provision of the Services' Terms of Use etc. and the PIXTA Group considers it necessary to disclose and use the User Information to any third party related to the violation, the PIXTA Group may do so, in accordance with the provisions of the Services' Terms of Use etc.

(8) For other purposes related to the above purposes.

The "use" set forth in this Article includes, as stipulated in the Article 4-(2) of the Privacy Policy, the cases where the "information related to the User's devices accessing to the Services and information collected through Cookies, etc." is handled and used by the PIXTA Group in reference to the Personal Information that the PIXTA Group owns. In addition, there may be the cases where such personally referable information provided from any third party becomes the Personal Information which can identify the specific individual by referring to the Personal Information that the PIXTA Group owns. Even in such cases, the purpose of use of such information will be limited within the Purposes stipulated in this Article.

6. Handling of Personal Information, provision to the third party

The PIXTA Group will handle the User Information in accordance with Act on the Protection of Personal Information or its relevant laws and regulations.

The PIXTA Group will take necessary and appropriate measures for the security control of the collected Personal Information such as prevention of the leakage, loss or damage of such Personal Information.

The PIXTA Group will not provide the User's Personal Information to any third party without the User's prior consent, except the following cases:

- (1) Cases based on laws and regulations;
- (2) Cases in which there is a need to protect a human life, body or fortune, and when it is difficult to obtain the User's consent;
- (3) Cases in which there is a special need to enhance public hygiene or promote fostering healthy children, and when it is difficult to obtain the User's consent;
- (4) Cases in which there is a need to cooperate in regard to a central government organization or a local government, or a person entrusted by them performing affairs prescribed by laws and regulations, and when there is a possibility that obtaining the User's consent would interfere with the performance of the said affairs;
- (5) Cases in which the third party is an academic research institution etc. and the third party needs to handle the Personal Information for academic purposes, including the case where part of the purpose of handling the Personal Information is for academic research purposes, except the case where the rights and interests of any individual may be unreasonably infringed;
- (6) Cases in which handling of the Personal Information will be entrusted to subcontractors to the extent required for achievement of the Purposes hereunder;
- (7) Cases in which the User's action has breached the terms, policy or notices etc. of the Services and in which it is considered necessary to protect right or fortune of the other User, the third party, or the PIXTA Group;
- (8) Cases in which disclosure of the Personal Information is lawfully demanded pursuant to order by the court, government authority, or by the police or any other equivalent public agency;
- (9) Cases in which the Personal Information is provided to the card issuers and payment service providers for credit card issuers' detecting and preventing unauthorized use; or
- (10) Cases in which disclosure or entrustment of the Personal Information is otherwise permitted under laws and regulations or the terms etc. agreed by the User.

7. Joint Use

In order to provide the User with better services, we will jointly use the User Information with the PIXTA Group pursuant to the provisions of laws and regulations.

- (1) Items that may be used jointly:
The same as set forth in Article 4 "User Information to be Collected" of the Privacy Policy.
- (2) Scope of joint users:
The companies of the PIXTA Group as set forth in the Article 3 of the Privacy Policy.

8. Mail Magazines etc.

The User may cease, suspend, or restart the subscription of our direct mails or mail magazines in accordance with the manner as separately designated by us.

9. Cookies etc.

The PIXTA Group will collect the User Information by use of Cookies or web-beacon as set forth in Article 4 of this Privacy Policy. Any User who desires to disable Cookies may do so by changing the configuration of web browser. Though the User who disables Cookies can access or use a part of the Services (including, without limitation, the websites of the Services), it should be understood that the services available to the User will be limited in connection with the part of the Services that uses Cookies.

(1) Behavioral Targeting Advertisement Services

Behavioral Targeting Advertisement Services listed on “Behavioral Targeting Advertisement the Services List” may be used in part of the Services in order to distribute proper advertisements to the User. In Behavioral Targeting Advertisement Services, selected advertisements will be distributed in accordance with interests or preference of the User who accesses to the Services on the basis of Cookies information such as the browsing record information. Any User who desires to refuse such Behavioral Targeting Advertisements has to access the opt-out pages of each of the companies listed on Behavioral Targeting Advertisement the Services List, and conduct invalidation procedures.

“Behavioral Targeting Advertisement the Services List” is here.

(2) Analysis Tool

The Services use Google Analytics, and other analysis tools provided by third party corporations for the purpose of service improvement and advertising effectiveness measurement etc. These analysis tools collect and analyze the information related to the User’s use of the Services such as the information collected through the use of Cookies, etc., access logs and device information as set forth in the item (2) of the Article 4 of the Privacy Policy. The PIXTA Group will receive from the Google LLC and other third party corporations the analysis data, and understands how the User accesses to the Services. The data has been collected anonymously through the analysis tools and cannot identify any specific individual, and has been handled in accordance with the privacy policies of the Google LLC (<https://policies.google.com/technologies/partner-sites?hl=en-US>) or other third party corporations. As the User may prevent collection of such data by refusing Cookies in the analysis tools, the User who desires to do so should check the settings of the User’s browser. The invalidation of the Google Analytics can be made by downloading and installing the “Google Analytics Opt-out Browser Add-on” available in the download page prepared by the Google LLC and changing the add-on settings of the browser.

The PIXTA Group combines data collected through the analysis tool and data collected through the Behavioral Targeting Advertisement Services, etc. and uses them for the purpose of analyzing attributions, interests and concerns of the User who accesses the Services as well as distributing advertisements. The features can be invalidated if the User disables Cookies by changing the configuration of web browser, or by using “Google Analytics Opt-out Browser Add-on”.
